

Kingsland Artists' and Creatives Register

Registration Form

Kingsland Business Society is looking for artists and creative people to propose or work with a range of different projects and events that add to the culture, character and experience of Kingsland.

The aim of the Kingsland Artists and Creatives Register is to identify makers, artists, producers, designers and design-led practitioners who may wish to exhibit, create, temporarily enliven or activate through performance spaces within Kingsland. This could include the use of public and private spaces, ground surfaces, vertical surfaces, air space, corridors, laneways, and/or reclaimed, unused, under-utilised or abandoned areas, objects and digital channels.
